Note

REQUIRED

The student is obliged to provide his or her equipment in order to be able to follow the training.

RECOMMENDED

Material that is useful for the pursuit of college studies, but is not mandatory.

If the student does not have the recommended equipment, DRI cannot guarantee the proper functioning of the licenses and software provided. In this situation, he or she will have to use the equipment made available on his or her campus or the loan system.

<sup>1</sup> The acquisition and use of this software is strongly recommended by the CEGEP, both for college studies and for all other needs (job market, university studies, etc.). These programs are also available on workstations made available to students in the CEGEP's facilities, including the libraries. However, an Antidote Web license loan program is available. WordQ is a free application.

<sup>2</sup> Antidote may be required in some courses as course material. This information is specified in the course outlines, where applicable. A temporary Antidote license loan system is available.
